Demonstration of Prosperity

Ten per cent of the entire population of the United States are depositors in savings banks, with about $4,250,000,000 to their credit. That is, the total number of depositors is 9,800,000 and it is probably far within the mark to say that the number of persons interested in these deposits is more than double that number—that not fewer than 20,000,000 of individual citizens have their stake in the public welfare and the security and stability of American institutions represented in this form of investment.

The savings bank depositors are, with infrequent exceptions, wage earners, members of wage earners' families or business men in a small way who take this method of putting by a nest egg apart from the money they need in their business. The great manufacturing states have the largest savings bank deposits and the money has undoubtedly been earned, as a rule, in industries that owe their activity, if not their very existence, to the republican protective tariff. The savings banks, and that means also the ability and the disposition of the American people to save, have grown with the growth of American industry under tariff protection. In 1860, with a democratic low tariff, the total savings bank deposits were less than $150,000,000 and the average per head of the total population was under $5; today the deposits, as already stated, are about $4,250,000,000 and the average per head of total population is about $45.

This vast sum is invested in securities that represent and are dependent for their income bearing value on national prosperity, on the continuance of Taft good times and on the freedom of the American people from the disturbance and upheaval that would attend Wilson free trade or Roosevelt revolution. Wilson, the man who says that the Chinese are to be preferred to immigrants from Europe and that the American workers got the Chinese excluded through fear of the superior intelligence of the Mongols, is chin wagging through the country against the protective tariff, which has helped nearly 10,000,000 of our people to put by in the savings banks more than $430 each. Roosevelt is preaching a third term in the White House for himself, with power through federal incorporation to hold in his single grasp control of the financial interests of the nation and of the enterprises which give profitable employment to millions of American citizens. Taft alone, safe and sane and progressive within the limits of safety, represents for the savings bank depositor and for all the people that respect for the rights of the individual, for the security of property and the supremacy of law and order without which savings banks deposits would be valueless and savings banks depositors would find that they had toiled and saved in vain.

These savings bank deposits are a bulwark against which Wilson and his free trade spellbinders will mouth and rant in vain. They are equally a Gibraltar against the waves of socialism, of anarchy, of revolution, lashed into fury by the desperate and reckless appeals of the third term candidate, whose legacy to the nation when he stepped out of office was the Roosevelt panic of 1907-8. The American people are not hankering for either free trade or revolution. They have a good thing in Taft good times, and they mean to keep it, and when the trial comes in November their verdict will be for the president whose very name is associated with the highest ideals of citizenship, with true progress for the nation and security in personal liberty and property for the individual.

Instead of answering or attempting to answer the charges made against the democratic senatorial candidate, the press of that party are making heroic endeavors to bury the charges by bitterly attacking Senator Massey. The silence in regard to the charges can easily be construed by the voters as indicating guilt.

Two years ago Senator Nixon carried Tonopah by a substantial majority. On November 5 Senator Massey is scheduled to receive even a larger majority.

Wagers are now being made that Roberts will receive the largest number of votes than any other candidate on the state or national ticket in Nevada.

The democratic press is insisting that a man be elected to the United States senate. Even the opposition is boosting for Massey.

The Balkan states are not much for fighters, but when it comes to producing fighters they have Turkey backed off the map.

Don't Pull Out

The Gray Hairs; Restore Color

A FEW APPLICATIONS OF A SIMPLE REMEDY WILL BRING BACK NATURAL COLOR

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place," is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that nature needs assistance. It is nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at 50 cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. G-adv.

Tonopah was visited by a slight snowfall yesterday. The fall started during the early morning and continued until noon. During the afternoon the weather moderated and turned somewhat chilly. From the appearances of the weather today it might be surmised that another pleasant spell will be in evidence for the next week or two. The snow that fell yesterday disappeared completely today.
